GALLAUDET COLLEGE
WASHINGTON, D. C.

VOL. VI., NO. 27
March 23, 1977

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!!!!

The Otis House, a half-way house for deaf people (former patients from St. Elizabeths), is in need of extensive help. The National Health Care Foundation for the Deaf has purchased this house, located at 1203 Otis St., N.E., with a very limited income. Volunteers are needed to help with the upkeep of the house. If you can paint, wall paper, do minor repair work, or general yard work, the half-way house needs you. If you are interested in the cause but have no time to give, contributions for the cost of materials are also being accepted. The weekend of April 23-24 has been designated as OTIS HOUSE WORK WEEK. If you can volunteer please contact Wilson Grabill at 868-1423, Babs Stevens 439-3856, or Julia Mayes 587-5344.

The residents of the house are also in need of games and hobbies.

SEMINARS AVAILABLE FROM PERSONNEL

--A one-session seminar on Archives will be held on March 25 in the Gallaudet Room in the Library, from 1:00 to 2:30 p.m. The seminar will include a brief talk, an exhibit of old photos and records, and a tour of the vault for those who are interested.

--Pat Singletary will conduct a seminar on "Conducting Performance Appraisals" on March 30, from 9:00 to 12:00 noon in the Library lounge.

--On April 4th a staff orientation seminar for the not-so-new employees who have not attended the regular orientation session will be held.

For more information regarding these seminars contact Consuelo Misa, 581.

BUS AVAILABLE TO VISIT THE GALLY STATUE
